FOR A WEBINAR ON

California's Blueprint for Competitive Integrated Employment for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

There is a shift occurring in the way we think about employment and people with developmental disabilities. Today, the goal is "Real Work for Real Pay."

In this webinar, you will learn about:

- The new 5-year Blueprint being developed by California's Departments of Education, Developmental Services, and Rehabilitation
- What the Blueprint means to families and people with disabilities
- Practical steps individuals and families can take to work towards building successful, satisfying careers

Speakers:

Olivia Raynor, Ph.D., Director
Tarjan Center UCLA & CECY
Director (Moderator)

Lana Fraser, Project Manager for the CIE Blueprint Workgroup

Marty Omoto, California
Disability Community Action
Network (CDCAN)

Rick Hodgkins, Disability
Activist
